

R12W

R11W

R10W

R09W

Within burned areas, be alert to a number of potential hazards created by recent fire activity. These include falling snags or trees, rolling material such as rocks or logs, holes from burned out stumps and roots, and others. Wind may increase the hazards. Although open, not all trails have been cleared, and many may be impassable, or may become so due to weather events.

PLEASE REMEMBER: Chainsaws are prohibited within the wilderness areas!

Lewis and Clark National Forest
 Fire Area Restrictions
 Fool Creek Fire
 Special Order LC-07-D1-16
 Attachment A-2
September 21, 2007

Flathead National Forest
 Fire Area Restrictions
 Fool Creek & Calbick Fires
 Special Order
 FNF-D04-084-S-07
September 24, 2007

Camping with Stock in the Calbick Fire Perimeter in the Flathead Forests REQUIRES 100% Supplemental Feed. Grazing is PROHIBITED.

Calbick Fire

Lewis & Clark National Forest

Flathead National Forest

Fool Creek Fire

Camping with Stock in the Fool Creek Fire Perimeter in both the Lewis & Clark and Flathead Forests REQUIRES 100% Supplemental Feed. Grazing is PROHIBITED.

West Fork Campground is CLOSED.

Legend

- Open Trails
- Trails Closed to Stock Travel
- Fire Perimeters

Stock camping within the Fool Creek and Calbick Fire Perimeters requires carrying 100% supplemental feed. No grazing allowed.

West Fork Teton Campground is CLOSED.

Trails 106, 117, and 107 on the Lewis & Clark National Forest are closed to stock use in the areas designated on this map.

