Crews will continue suppression work in the northwest part of fire near the communication towers and will work to finish removing unnecessary equipment.

Crews finished removing all the structure wrap and equipment from Bandelier National Monument. The Bandelier National Monument remains closed. Please see their website for current information.

Chipping operations continue along the southern end of the fire and crews are patrolling the line for areas of heat and finishing up suppression repair operations.