Community Meeting

A community information meeting on Wednesday, July 18 at the Senior Center in Burns, OR was attended by 42 area residents interested in the progress firefighters are making on containing the Egley Complex fires.

Incident Commander Jeff Pendleton used a large map to indicate where firefighting resources have completed firelines and where they continue to build line. The fire is currently 60 percent contained. Firefighting resources have an estimated 10 more miles of fireline to construct.
