UMATILLA NATIONAL FOREST
Forest Order # T 2013-0614-NFJD-5

Enforcement Plan

1. Background:

A wildfire is currently burning in the North Fork John Day Wilderness that has the potential of escaping and putting people and structures just outside of the wilderness in danger. The Forest Service fire personnel are actively engaged in containment of the fire to attempt prevent any damage or injury.

2. Intent of Subpart B Order:

These restrictions are intended to protect the general public from being injured or interfering with firefighting activities, including helicopters dipping water from Olive Lake and fire fighters supporting the fight against the Vinegar Fire.

3. Enforcement Plan:

This order will be enforceable by LEOs, FPOs and Special agents. The current Fire Team assigned to the fire has ordered additional law enforcement and security personnel to assist with the enforcement of the closure. Officers will exercise normal discretion in resolving violations. Officers will normally not issue citations unless the affected areas are adequately posted

4. Posting:

The personnel assigned to the fire and the forest district staff are responsible for posting this order in a reasonable manner.
